七、阅读理解(本大题共10小题,每题2分,共20分)

(A)

Old Dawson had the best apples in town, but kids knew they must not go into his yard to pick a delicious apple, even off the ground, because Dawson, a bad-tempered (坏脾气的) man, they said, would come after you with his gun.

One Friday, 12-year-old Janet was going to stay all night with her friend Amy. They had to walk by Dawson's house on the way to Amy's house. Like most of the children, Janet was scared of the old man because of the stories she'd heard about him.

Amy said that Mr. Dawson would not hurt anyone. Still, Janet was growing more nervous with each step closer to the old man's house. When they got close enough, Dawson looked up with his usual frown (皱眉), but when he saw it was Amy, a big smile changed his whole face as he said, "Hello, Miss Amy. I see you've got a little friend with you today."

Amy smiled back and told him Janet was staying overnight and they were going to listen to music and play games. Dawson told them that sounded fun, and offered them each a fresh picked apple off his tree.

As they walked on, Janet asked Amy, "Everyone says he's the meanest man in town. Why was he so nice to us?" Amy explained that when she first started walking past his house, he was not very friendly and she was afraid of him, but she always smiled at him. It took a while, but one day he half-smiled back at her.

After some more time, he started smiling real smiles and then started talking to her. Just a "hello" at first, then more. She said he always offers her an apple now, and is always very kind.

We are always trying to achieve so much, and it's so easy to get caught up in (被卷入; 陷入) everyday life that we forget we can bring cheer to ourselves and others simply. Giving a smile takes so little effort; let's smile to others.

(B)

We have rather a small house, with only one spare bedroom. You can imagine our alarm, then, when Aunt Clara wrote to say that she was coming to stay with her family for the weekend. Her family, I should explain, consists of four boys, all under the age of 12.

I sent off a telegram at once, protesting that our house was too small. Aunt Clara called us up the next morning. "I forgot to explain," she said in her sweetest voice, "The boys will bring a couple of tents."

Even so, my wife was far from reassured(消除疑虑). It was true we had a large garden, but there was still the problem of feeding four growing boys. "And what if it rains" she asked.

But Saturday morning turned out to be bright and clear when I went to the station to meet Aunt Clara. I managed to squeeze three of the boys, together with the luggage, into the back of the car. The youngest sat in front, with Aunt Clara and me.

"I didn't see the tents among your luggage," I remarked over my shoulder to David, the eldest boy. "The tents!" exclaimed (惊叫) Aunt Clara, "Oh! we left them in the luggage van (行李车厢)."
